

The Hollis Democrats Mission is to work for good government in our town, state and country through voter education and activism. Our newsletter seeks to educate, inform and provide ways to participate in activities that improve our community.

Hello Hollis Dems!

Please join us on Saturday morning, January 20th, at 10:00 am at the NH Statehouse as we unite in Concord to reaffirm our commitment to building a positive and just future for all, and to celebrate the spirit of resistance efforts over the past year. This rally has been organized to engage and empower voters to support women's rights, human rights, social and environmental justice, and to encourage participation in the 2018 midterm elections.

Anne DiCicco and I are happy to be on the organizing team, and the Hollis Democrats are proud to be partnered with such a wonderful, energetic group of activism and party leaders. The rally will feature grassroots activists from across our great state, remarks from Senator Jeanne Shaheen and Senator Maggie Hassan, and keynote speakers Congresswoman Annie Kuster and Congresswoman Rosa DeLauro, author of "The Least Among Us: Waging the Battle for the Vulnerable". More info on our Facebook event page or you can register on Eventbrite.

We'll keep the momentum going on Tuesday, January 23rd, for our monthly meeting at the Lawrence Barn. Come at 6:30 pm for Pizza & Politics, and we'll be joined by Melanie Levesque from Brookline, candidate for NH Senate. We'll also be following up on last month's discussion of adding family-friendly daytime meetings as well as discussing ways to energize ourselves for the long march to the November midterms.

I look forward to seeing you all at both events!
