nation. What a great opportunity to see them all in contrast to each other at one event.

The only downside to the timing of the convention is that the party moved its annual event to September from its traditional June slot. This created a conflict with Hollis Old Home Days. For many of us, this was a sad turn of affairs - but the decision was made to go to the convention in support of our party and/or its candidates. We will have to forego running a booth and taking part in the OHD parade for 2015. But make no mistake that the Hollis Dems will be back with bells-on next year at Hollis OHD!

million dollars by Labor Day in order to launch a referendum candidacy on the issue of returning the Democracy to the people.

He met his goal by promoting a simple idea - fix our Democracy first. See his interview with George Stefanopolus this week here. Lessig plans to focus on two issues throughout the primary - Getting the Big Money Out of our Politics, and Reforming campaign finance, and repairing our jerry-rigged Electoral College system. If he wins the Presidency, he'll fix these two big issues and resign, handing the reigns over to his Vice Presidential running Don't miss our Annual Harvest Fest Potluck dinner on Friday, October 16th, 2015 5:30 - 8:30 at the Lawrence Barn where we mix politics, music, good food and good fun. This year we're planning a Meet the Candidates night. More info to follow as the event firms up. We use this wonderful event to help fund our support of NH Candidates and to effectively help progressive candidates win elections. Please plan to attend to learn and enjoy good company right here in town.

Novel approach - but then, the times call for new and innovative! Not sure if Larry Lessig will make an appearance at the convention - but he is running as a Democrat - so if you see him, welcome him and his ideas! Like Elizabeth Warren, he's a creative thinker who speaks plainly and he's committed to fixing our broken system. Go Democrats! We have the best ideas!
